

Exercise 3: Read the question and write the answer.

1. Who is the President of the United States today?

2. Who is the Vice-President today?

3. Who elects the President of the United States?

4. Who becomes President of the United States if the President should die?

5. How long is the President's term in office?

6. How many terms can a President serve?

7. Who becomes President of the United States if the President and Vice-President should die?

8. What is the executive branch of the government?

9. According to the Constitution, a person must meet certain requirements in order to become President. Name one of these requirements.

10. Who signs bills into law?

11. What special group advises the President?

12. Who has the power to declare war?

13. What is the name of the President's official home?

14. What is the White House?

15. Where is the White House located?

16. Who is commander in chief of the U.S. military?

17. In what month do we vote for the President?

18. In what month is the new President inaugurated?
